VI- Reading Comprehension And Summary Making (70 Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

When Miguel Rodriguez was a young boy in Los Angeles, he was very shy. He had small speech impairment (disability) and found it difficult to communicate with others. His parents worried about how their son would get along in school. But all that changed one day in the second grade.

Miguel saw some of his classmates playing soccer and decided to join them. "It was like someone flipped a switch," his mother said. Miguel opened up. His speech impairment disappeared, and Miguel became a successful and popular student.

Like Miguel, soccer has changed the lives of many people around the world. Whether giving a shy kid a way to open up to others, or helping homeless kids find a way to get off the streets, soccer has become an international language that speaks louder than words.

One of the reasons that soccer has been able to cross borders so easily is that the rules are the same, no matter where you are. Even if the teams come from all over the globe, they all share common rules and traditions relating to the game. After all, a yellow card means the same thing whether you are from Taiwan, the U.S., Brazil, or Italy. Some other reasons for the universal popularity of soccer may be the fact that its rules are relatively simple compared to many other sports, and because it can be played anywhere from a city park to an international stadium. Moreover, the equipment required is very basic.

Just as Miguel Rodriguez was able to use soccer to communicate with other kids, soccer matches, both big and small, bring people together from all over the world. The FIFA World Cup, the largest soccer competition in the world, has seen 76 nations compete over its history. It is estimated that there were 700 million viewers of the final World Cup match in 2010 between Spain and the Netherlands alone. That's about one-ninth of the world's entire population. With those kinds of numbers, it's no surprise that soccer has become a universal language.

A) From a, b, c and d, choose the correct answer: (6X6=36)

30. The main idea of the passage would be
- a- how popular soccer competitions like the FIFA World Cup have become
 - b- how one boy's parents used soccer to help him become popular
 - c- how soccer has become like an international language around the world
 - d- how soccer has become more popular recently in the U.S.
31. In paragraph 4, the underlined word "equipment" means
- a- tools
 - b- traditions
 - c- surprises
 - d- sports
32. The underlined word "they" in paragraph 4 refers to
- a- rules
 - b- teams
 - c- reasons
 - d- borders
33. According to the reading passage, the FIFA World Cup is
- a- a national competition
 - b- made up of only small competitions
 - c- the least-viewed sports event in history
 - d- the largest soccer competition in the world
34. We can infer that Miguel's speech impairment improved because
- a- his parents were worried
 - b- he was in second grade
 - c- he didn't like soccer
 - d- he felt less shy around the other kids
