Last month, my friend Maha had a birthday party. She was thirteen, then. On her birthday, her father took her to Kuwait Zoo in Al Omariya to spend a day in the fresh air and see the lovely animals, there. Maha liked parrots a lot because they could talk. Maha decided to buy a pair of parrots. After a week, Maha went to the birds market to buy a red and yellow parrot that can talk and repeat her words.

Finally, Maha bought a beautiful bird, but it could not say a word. Maha started training the parrot to talk. She stopped giving it food for a while. She started repeating a word in front of it. When the parrot started to repeat the word, Maha gave it lots of food and sweets.
