Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

Henrietta (Hetty) Green was a very spoilt, only child. She was born in Massachusetts, USA, in 1835. Her father was a millionaire businessman. Her mother was often ill and so from the age of two her father took her with him to work and taught her about business.

At the age of six she started reading the daily financial newspapers. Her father died when she was 21 and she inherited $7.5 million. She went to New York and invested on Wall Street. Hetty saved every penny, eating in the cheapest restaurants for 15 cents. She became one of the richest women in the world. At 33 she married Edward Green, a multimillionaire, and had two children, Ned and Sylvia.

Hetty' s awfulness was legendary. She always argued about prices in shops. She walked to the local grocery store to buy broken cookies because they were much cheaper. She never bought clothes and always wore the same long, ragged black skirt.

When she died in 1916 she left her children $ 100 million (worth $9.3 billion today). Her daughter built a hospital with her money.
