VI-READING COMPREHENSION (14 Marks)

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below:

There was a King who had the habit of asking questions. If people couldn't answer, he used to kill them.

Once, a wise man came to the royal palace and told the king: 'I'll ask you three simple questions. You must answer them correctly or you'll have to leave the palace forever.' The King thought he was smart enough to answer the simple questions, so he agreed.

The wise man asked, "What can run faster than the wind? Who helps in trouble? And what is the sweetest thing in the world?" The king and his men couldn't answer the questions. The king was afraid of losing his palace, but his clever queen told him: "I'll help you if you promise you'll never ask your people questions or kill them." The king promised and got the answers.

The king gave the answers to the wise man. "A wish from the heart is faster than the wind. A true friend helps a man in trouble, and polite words are the sweetest in the world." The wise man felt happy that he could save the people.
