B- Reading Comprehension (16Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

"Is it too dark to read your book? Just switch on the light." It is hard to believe that only just a long time ago, this was not possible. There was no electric light to switch on. People used candles, gas and oil lamps to light their homes and to work and study.

The electric light bulb was invented in 1879 by Thomas Edison. He invented many other things which we use them till today. He also invented things which helped other people develop their own inventions.

Thomas Edison was born on February 11, 1847 in Milan Ohio. Edison was a creative scientist. He used to produce new ideas. However, when he was a child, his teachers thought that he was stupid because he used to ask too many questions. His mother said he didn't ask questions because he was stupid, but because he was curious about how things worked. She taught him at home. He worked so hard day and night that he had little time for family and friends. He spent much of his childhood in Michigan. In fact Thomas had some hearing problems. Once, he wrote, "I have not heard a bird sing since I was twelve years old."
